

Level E8

Lesson 13: Fantastic Adventures- Reading and Book Appreciation

In today's lesson your child learnt about understanding the key events and sequence in an explorer's journey. They learned ways to come up with their own characters and settings and describe them while writing. They also practiced singular-plural and learnt plurals with ending -ies words. They used complex sentence examples to give out details about a story. They also revised -ough words with /o/ sound and /f/ sound.

LEARNED:

- Used story creation techniques to come up with character(s) and setting
- Used story creation techniques to come up with key events in a plot.
- Used simple and complex sentences to narrate.

RECALLED:

-ough words (thorough, rough)

RACTICE:

Read a book with your child and

- Encourage your child to narrate the sequence of events in an explorer's journey.
- Discuss singular and plurals of words (objects) around them.

READING:

1) 'Sea Route to India' - Amar Chitra Katha

- 2) 'Following the Trail of Marco Polo Story Book'
- Geronimo Stilton